A Message From the Title I Team

This has been an interesting year, yet one of learning and growth. We have enjoyed each of the students we've worked with and wish continued success. We thank you (the parents) for your engagement and support. Have an awesomely super summer break!

Summer Bridge Essentials Backpack

The Backpacks will include:

- Activities Workbook
- 2 Nonfiction & 2 Fiction Books
- Parent Support

The Backpack will be mailed to your home address the week of May 31st.

IXL.com will be available throughout the summer for student use. Encourage your child to continue enjoying this valuable program!

Learning Targets

1st Grade

- I can persevere and show craftsmanship in understanding and creating poetry.
- I can decode and read one and two syllable words.

2nd Grade

- I can persevere and show craftsmanship in understanding and creating poetry.
- I can read with accuracy and fluency to support comprehension.

Summer Reading Tips

-  Start with a known favorite
-  Use Amazon and Google to find similar books
-  Look for books on subjects they love
-  Ask friends for suggestions
-  Get a library card and keep your shelves fully stocked
-  Let them read whatever they want. All reading is awesome!
